Dear Friends of GBBC,

April 2023

We are in the “home stretch” for the Spring semester at Ganado Baptist Bible College! The students have done well and are in preparation for finals and all that goes with that!

All the classes have gone well. The Defense of the King James course probably has the largest single class in the history of the College. It is also one of the most, if not THE most, challenging courses we offer. We recently had some visiting prospective students sit in on a class that outlined the flaws of the ESV. The response from students and visitors alike was excellent. The Fundamentals of Music/Songleading class has also gone well. There are a number of different levels musically among our students, so it can be a challenge, but everyone is making an effort to get better. Bro. Darryl James will graduate on May 8th.

We are facing some exciting and challenging times at the College. We have begun to get inquiries from prospective students who are not living within driving distance of the College. We have hoped for this day and now it may be upon us within the next year or two. This is going to require some kind of housing for those who cannot make the drive home on the weekends and for Sunday in their home churches. Pray with us as we seek solutions. We have begun the initial work of trying to secure another land site from the Tribe upon which to build dorms. There are also some possibilities, at least temporary, within the Ganado area and beyond. We are looking at a house that some friends of the ministry have the rights to, that could provide a temporary solution. We ask that you pray for our wisdom in this area as well as receiving new students from other Tribes.

The Spiritual Gifts Seminar was amazing and Pastor Pete Reitz did an outstanding job. It greatly helped the churches that attended. Bro. Reitz has been a wonderful friend to this ministry.

Thank you for your prayers and financial support of GBBC. The Fall Semester will kick off with the Navajoland Baptist Revival August 9-11. We are expecting large crowds and numerous out-of-town visitors. Please pray for the meeting and for a great start in the Fall!

In Christ,

Pastor Mark Haynes and Pastor Joel Haynes
